25X1A9a 1. Discussed with Mr. Sheldon the question of a replacement for [REDACTED].

25X1A9a 2. At this time was informed by Mr. Sheldon of the error which had occurred in the case of [REDACTED] (as noted in yesterday's diary).

25X1A9a 3. [REDACTED] informed me that O/CI was sending up a special memorandum on PD 160.

25X1A5a1 4. Ev Gleason of the NSC Secretariat stated that he had had a call from [REDACTED] formerly associated with [REDACTED] and now associated with [REDACTED] had indicated that he was engaged in an intelligence survey of some sort under Air Force auspices and requested that Gleason permit one of his staff members to work on this survey. Gleason informed [REDACTED] that they relied upon CIA for their intelligence and suggested that [REDACTED] get in touch with us. I indicated to Mr. Gleason that I was very happy to have him do this and would carry on in the event that [REDACTED] called me. 25X1A5a1 25X1A9a

25X1X6 5. At the morning meeting Mr. Dulles referred to a letter from Mossadeq to [REDACTED] which had been mentioned by an [REDACTED] 25X1A5a1 25X1A5a1 [REDACTED]

25X1A9a 6. Mr. Dulles informed me that on his trip he was going to talk with the [REDACTED] if possible, to have one or two items of CIA intelligence to pass to them as a trading basis. I undertook to look into the question of what might be available. Later Mr. Dulles spoke to Amory on this and I indicated to Amory that I would like to see anything he collected for this purpose. I have also asked [REDACTED] to see whether O/SI had any such material. This should be entirely CIA produced intelligence and might well cover fields in which our collection is little more than newspaper character, but looks rather impressive, and may be used as a means of stimulating additional collection.
